PUBLIC LEDGER

DAILY — MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN.

THIRD YEAR. MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1894. ONE CENT.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN OF SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—'twill WARMER grow.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER 'twill be;
Unless Black's shown—no change we'll see

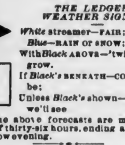
☞ The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.



APPENDICITIS—THE LATEST FAD.

Have you got the new disorder?
If you haven't, 'tis in order
To succumb to it at once without delay.
It is called appendicitis—
Very different from gastritis
Or the common trash diseases of the day.

It creates a happy frolic,
Something like a winter colic,
That has often jarred our inner organs some;
Only wrestles with the wealthy,
And otherwise most healthy—
Having got it, then you're nigh to kingdom come.

Midway down in your intestine,
Its interstices infestin',
It a little alley, blind and dark as night,
Leading off simply nowhere,
Catching all stray things that go there;
As a pocket, it is clearly out of sight.

It is prone to stop and grapple
With the seed of grape or apple,
Or a soldier button swallowed with your pie.
Having levied on these chattels,
Then begin internal battles
That are apt to end in mansions in the sky.

Once located, never doubt it,
You would never be without it,
It's a fad among society that's gay;
Old heart failure and parents
Have decamped and gone to pieces,
And dyspepsia has fallen by the way.

Then stand back there, diabetes,
For here comes appendicitis,
With a brood of minor troubles on the wing;
So, vermiform, here's hoping
You'll withstand all drastic dosing,
And earn the appellation, "Unbrowned King!"

Everett Brightman shipped a lot of geese East last night.

The great annual event in Central Kentucky is the Lexington Fair, which is set for the week of August 28th to September 1st.

A well-proportioned woman wears a shoe whose number is half that of her glove; for instance, if her glove is No. 6, her shoe should be No. 3.

Judge J. M. Collins of Covington, who has been seriously ill at Healing Springs, Va., is much improved and is now on a fair road to permanent health.

Citizens of Maysilck are requested to meet at Oddfellows Hall Saturday, August 25th, at 3. p. m., for the purpose of organizing a cemetery company.

Donney F. Detrow, who gave his residence as near Maysville, was arrested at Portsmouth on a charge of burglarizing the residence of John Bodman at Sugar Grove. Detrow says it was his first offense and he was desperate, owing to not being able to secure work.

J. J. Brosee, Day Clerk at the Central, is on the sick list.

The boiler and engine for the shoe factory have arrived.

The Cynthiana Water-works will be completed this month.

Commonwealth's Attorney J. H. Sallee is out again after a sick spell.

J. M. Scott's family will occupy the residence of Mrs. Henry Hubbard, West Third street.

A new confectionery store will be opened in McClanahan & Shea's building, Second street, in a few days.

The members of the Central Presbyterian Church are requested to all be at Prayer-meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. J. M. Logan's miners, who struck on him at Kilgore a few weeks ago, have all resumed work on the Doctor's terms.

It is expected that the Rev. Dr. A. C. Davidson, President of Georgetown College, will preach at the First Baptist Church next Sunday.

Last evening train No. 4 on the C. and O. had nine cars in the train, six of which were full of passengers, one of the largest trains going East for some time.

George S. Hancock, one of our oldest citizens, is a candidate for Magistrate in District No. 1, composed of the First, Second and Third Wards.

The Lewis County Teachers' Institute is in session at Vanceburg and will continue during the week. There are fully a third more teachers than during any previous time.

The personal estate of the late Mrs. Mary W. Willett has been appraised at $3,802 02. The appraisers were William Luttrell, Robert E. Pogue and E. R. Davis.

The earnings of the L. and N. for the fourth week in July were $515,655, a decrease of only $1,749 from the same time last year, and of $67,610 from 1892. This shows some improvement.

Mrs. Ed Hiatt, who tried to shuffle off by shooting herself Monday night, will recover. The physician has given her full instuctions, and if she is really in earnest she now has "pointers" enough to insure success next time.

The late Joel Lukins, who died near Mt. Gilead at the age of 82, was born and raised in the house where he died. Two his near neighbors, Messrs. Robert Turner and Jerry DeBell, both of whom died at an advanced age, also died in the houses where they were born and had always lived.

Not deterred by hard times and Tariff uncertainties, Hechinger & Co. are just now moving back their summer goods in order to make room in front for the largest iffie of fall goods ever displayed in Maysville. These comprise every novelty of web, warp and woof, and in style and make-up they eclipse all former efforts of even this unapproachable firm. In will repay you to step in and take a look at these goods.

Frank B. Ranson & Co. announce in this impression of THE LEDGER that they will be prepared at an early date to furnish its readers with the best values and correct styles of footwear. Mr. Ranson is an acknowledged authority on shoes, and when he makes a declaration it may be regarded as having something behind it more than the mere assertion. THE LEDGER bespeaks for the new house a generous share of patronage.

The descendants of Davy Crockett in Kentucky and elsewhere will hold their regular annual reunion this year at Humbolt, Tenn. The Crockett clan is composed of every one in the United States who bears the name of Crockett. There are a great many of the family in Kentucky, Tennessee and Arkansas, and for a number of years have celebrated the birthday of their ancestor. "Old Davy" was born August 17th, and this is the usual date on which the clan meets, but this year the celebration for various reasons will not occur until September 8th.

IT'S SO IF — IT'S IN THE LEDGER.

Sensible—An old sea captain writes to J. C. Ayer & Co. that he never goes to sea without a supply of Ayer's Pills.

"Gov." Edgington had on such a cargo last night that it took Barney Stockdale, Frank Purnell and a horse and dray to get him and it to the Hotel de Kirk.

MURDER IN LEWIS.

Another Added to the Long Catalogue of Bloody Crimes.

A special from Vanceburg says that four months ago William Upton, aged 35, living on Upper Kinney, left his wife and two children and ran away with Zada Upton, his cousin, 15 years old.

The couple returned a month ago, and since have been living with John Upton, William's brother.

Near John's house lives Zada's father, Rev. Newton Upton.

Much bad blood has existed between William and John on one side and Zada's father and her brother Ed. on the other.

John and William went to Rev. Upton's house Monday afternoon late to raise a row with Ed.

The latter appeared with a Winchester rifle and shot William dead.

Ed. and John were taken to Vanceburg and will have their preliminary trial today.

OUR BALL CLUB.

What it is Now and What it Has Done in the Past.

In electing Mr. W. S. Watson to manage for them the locals made a wise move. Mr. Watson is one of our leading young business men, and he will be untiring in his efforts to secure the best amateur professional teams in the state to play on our grounds.

Manager Watson is more than pleased with the showing made by our boys, as well as the four men on the team drawing a salary.

On the trip up the river, in securing Fred Frank Maysville has an outfielder whose equal is not outside the National League.

Frank Bruner, who joined the locals awhile back, has developed wonderfully. He is not only pitching good ball, but his general work has made him many friends.

Charley Sparks, Maysville's new left-handed twirler, has been handicapped by sickness ever since he has been here. He has entirely recovered now, and in the next game in which he is in the box he will prove that he is all that has been claimed for him.

The last but not least of the salaried quartette is George Nie. Nie will do all the catching, and will help Maysville to many a victory by his terrific work with the stick.

With these, and Cox, Wadsworth, Rogers and the others in practice, there is not a team in Central Kentucky that has any license to defeat Maysville.

The locals have played thirty games this season. Here is a list of those that were won or lost by a close score:

Navies of Cincinnati 6, Maysville 4; Maysville 8, Ironton 7; Maysville 9, Ironton 8; Ashland 4, Maysville 2; Huntington 4, Maysville 1, (12 innings.) Mays ville 11, Georgetown 7.

One of the greatest victories of the season for Maysville was the game with the crack Cincinnati Gymnasium team, whom they defeated by a score of 13 to 5.

NOTES.

The St. Louis Browns play at Lexington today.

Ben Cox resigned the Captaincy of the locals, and Henry Wadsworth was elected to succeed him.

The Mt. Sterling team has reorganized. They defeated Frankfort Monday by a score of 13 to 12.

The great Cynthiana team, which has defeated Paris, Frankfort and a number of other good clubs in the state, will play here next Friday afternoon and Saturday morning.

A ball nine from the Teachers' Institute at Aberdeen played the Mayavilles at the park yesterday afternoon. The game attracted only a small crowd. The locals played horse with the teachers, and won by a score of 25 to 9.

Miss Nannie Bell is quite ill with typhoid fever at Flemingsburg.

Rev. R. G. Patrick, A. R. Glascock, James H. Hall, W. R. Warder, D. M. Runyon, John T. Parker, Robert Tolle, John R. Cochran and others, representing the First Baptist Church of this city, went to Mayslick today to attend the Bracken District Association, which will be in session there the remainder of this week.

For sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhœa in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhœa very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." Twenty five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

NOT FOR THEM.

The Local U. R. K. P.'s Will Not Journey to Washington City.

Rates too high.

At a meeting of Maysville Division No. 6, U. R. K. P., last night it was decided that they would not join the proposed Encampment at Washington City this fall.

The reason is that satisfactory rates cannot be made with the railroads.

In lieu of the National Encampment the Divisions throughout Kentucky are preparing for a State Encampment at Woodland Park, Lexington.

NOT BUILT THAT WAY.

An Echo From a Chicago World's Fair Photograph.

There is a story afloat that will apply to Maysville as well as any other place.

A couple of Second street Misses had been to the World's Fair, and in the showcase of a Chicago photographer they had seen for the first time the pictures of two young ladies as they were peeping through a torn newspaper.

They admired the group very much, and concluded to have their pictures taken in the same style when they came home. The plan was carried into execution recently, and the photographer proudly placed one of the pictures in his showcase. It did not stay there long. The artist had used a Cincinnati daily for the picture, and right under the face of the girls was the advertisement of a clothing merchant beginning thus: "Our pants are lined in the seat."

SENSE A FOOT THICK.

What an Ex-Maysville Man Says of the Late Strike.

Ed. L. Martin of Kansas City, an official of the Kansas City, Pittsburgh and Gulf Railroad, in a letter to his brother William of this city, has this to say of Debs and his recent monumental folly:

The strike did not injure our road, from the fact none of our men went out, but stuck to us faithfully, and the result was we had a better business than if the strike had not occurred. As a reward for the faithfulness of our employes we advanced their wages 10 per cent., beginning today. The strike was a complete failure, as it should be. Sympathetic strikes are wrong in principle. It is nothing less than boycotting. If the A. R. U. and other labor organizations had contributed to the support of the Pullman employes it would have cost them less and been more effective, and in addition would have elicited the sympathy of nearly every one, but when Debs ordered the strike it was a fatal blow to organized labor. I am in favor of organized labor, but not the kind that undertakes to disrupt the entire business of the country to defeat a local concern like the Pullman Company by such methods that were employed in this case.

At the recent auction sale of Big Sandy river steamboats the Andy Hatcher and Sandy Valley were sold to A. Hatcher and Frank Preston for $4,800. A Paintsville syndicate purchased the Frank Preston for $2,500 and the Fair Play for $2,985.

Washington, D. C., and return only $14. On account of the meeting of Supreme Lodge and Conclave of Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias at Washington, D. C., August 27th to September 5th, the C. and O. will sell round trip tickets from Maysville to Washington at $14. Return limit September 8th with privilege of extension until September 15th.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Theo. C. Power, Druggist.

THANKS, AWFULLY.

A Matter of Good Judgement all the Way Through.

Covington Commonwealth.

If our good friend, the Editor of THE MAYSVILLE PUBLIC LEDGER, insists upon it, we will admit, out of deference to his judgment, which, as a rule, is pretty fair, that Judge Thomas Paynter has made a toiersably decent clerk while in Congress, and not at all a bad correspondent so far as replying to the importunate letters of an eager constituency is concerned. More than that, a sense of truth and justice, we are sure, will prevent our good friend from requiring of us. To do so would be as ungenerous as it would be unwarranted. A commonplace man, like the affable and agreeable Tom Paynter, can scarcely be denominated an eligible for admission to the premises of genius under any circumstances whatever. Indeed, we will go so far as to say that the hope we expressed to the effect that a poor Congressman might develop into a good Judge is a question that is surrounded by difficulties, which it is only left to us to pray may not prove insurmountable.

THERE is a Tariff of $2 a keg on wire nails, while the nails are selling at $1 65 a keg; and thus it is quite plain that "The Tariff is a Tax."

IN 1870 tin plate was selling for $12 a box. Americans went into the business; English manufacturers dropped the price to $7—to $3 50—to undersell Americans. There was no Tariff sufficient to measure the difference in cost of production, Americans were driven out of business, English manufacturers secured a monopoly and put up the price again. The McKinley Bill put an additional Tariff of $1 20 a box on tin plate, and yet a year after the passage of the McKinley Bill tin plate was selling at a lower price than it had been a year before the McKinley Bill, but the price of English tin plate at our ports had dropped by the amount of the Tariff.

ON Saturday the gold reserve reached the unprecedentedly low figure of $52,820,369. There were not as large exportations of the precious metal last week as expected, something under two million having been shipped. Further withdrawals are looked for this week, and the Administration grows weary while the Tariff conferees fight over schedules and try to see how they can benefit the Sugar Trust instead of the country. If Congress were to adjourn with a Tariff Bill passed the Treasury expects there would be large payments of custom duties immediately, and that the gold reserve would thus be upbuilded. They are afraid to issue bonds, considering the cry made against the last issue, and so the deplorable condition of the Treasury is permitted to continue, and from present appearances, even if relief were to be expected from the passage of the Tariff Bill, that is very remote.

SATAN'S PROTRACTED MEETING.

A Brief Resume of Events in the Seven-Acre-City For the Past Week.

Communicated.

The following is taken from The Gehenna Gazette, the official organ of His Satanic Majesty in that empire. As it relates to events in our own city, it will be read with interest:

A Prince of His Satanic Majesty, ably assisted by a body of "willing workers," and a splendid corps from the Society of Demoniacal Endeavor, has just closed a revival service in Maysville. It was a protracted meeting of four days continuance.

The main service was held during the day on the Fairgrounds. The overflow meeting and night services were held in private parlors, the theater, the poolrooms, the barrooms, the ballrooms and brothels.

In many particulars this meeting completely outrid the union services held by the churches in the spring.

During those services a few sunrise prayer-meetings were held; but in this the workers were abroad by daylight.

In the union meetings a few of the more active workers were found on the streets; but in this the zealous swarmed around the corners of the streets, and in barrooms and ballrooms like bees.

The union meetings of the churches were continued sometimes until 10 o'clock at night; but in this the night meetings were continued until midnight, and in Neptune Hall more than one all-night meeting was held with unflagging interest.

At the close of the union meeting of the churches, something over one thousand dollars were contributed toward defraying expenses; and that not without some grumbling from those who contributed nothing; but on the first day of this meeting one thousand dollars was cheerfully given for two horse races; and before its close, it is safe to say, that ten times this sum changed hands.

In one particular the meeting has scarcely realized the hopes of its managers. It was believed, and, in fact, promised by some of the "willing workers," that many, if not all, of those who had abandoned the service of His Satanic Majesty during the Fife meetings, would be reclaimed; but only a few came back to renew their fidelity to him and his kingdom.

The meeting was closed with an address from the Prince, under whose auspices it was held. His remarks were earnest, eloquent and true; but owing to the fact that he accidentally dropped the silk glove from his iron hand when near the close, its peroration was entirely too plain, and will do mischief we fear. After complimenting his "willing workers," and his audience generally on their activity, liberality and zeal, and upon their partial success in reclaiming some of those he had lost, he closed with these words:

You, fathers and mothers who have contributed so liberally to furnish your sons the money for the poolrooms, and to dress your daughters for the balls, go on in your good work; and we can assuredly promise your gray hairs the privilege of "going down in sorrow to the grave," and you yourselves the privilege, when you die, of parting with a family well steeped in sin, and when they meet you in the eternal world they will acknowledge you as the authors of their fate.

You, young men, be faithful to the life upon which you have launched, and we promise you a harvest of idle habits, of inflamed passions, squandered capabilities and lost opportunities that it will take you an eternity to reap.

You, young women, continue faithful to the fascinations of the ballroom, and we promise you that from among the dudes with whom you are there associated, you shall have a husband that will break your heart by his infidelity and cloud your life with shame by his vices.

You, church members, who have so bravely turned aside upon your religion, continue steadfast in your course, and we promise you a guilty conscience, a disgraced profession and a religious life that will hang the heads of your Christian friends with shame, and wring your Pastor's heart with grief and mortification.

For the present, one and all, farewell. We will be with you again during the Christmas Holidays.

In the meantime, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the devil, and your work will not be in vain; for remember, Mr. Fife was right when he so frequently and impressively said: "Sow cards, and you will reap gamblers; sow wine cups, and you will reap drunkards; sow ballrooms, and you will reap adulterers."

We repeat: his confession was entirely too plain. We saw the color come and go in the cheeks of some of his audience as he spoke.

To be sure we were not mistaken in one impression: we followed two young professors of religion to Cincinnati. They were very happy. In fact, they were quite miserable. Through a hole in the lattice we saw them on their knees confessing their sins and asking their Savior's forgiveness. After they arose, Mary said to John:

"Is it worth while for us to try it again? We have tried to be a credit to our religion so often and failed every time!"

"Mary," said John, "you know that during the entire Revolutionary War Washington won but a single battle, and that at its close; but that battle gave our country its freedom. By the grace of God, if it takes me the balance of my natural life, I'll have my Yorktown yet."

"So will I," said Mary.

At that I left, feeling confident that the Prince must not speak so plainly hereafter, if he would do His Majesty real service. X.

IT FAILED.

The Caucus of the Democratic Members of the House.

Crisp-Wilson Conferees Outvote the Springer-Bynum Faction.

Senator Gorman Gives the House Forty-Eight Hours to Come to Terms—If They Refuse Free Sugar Will Be Put in the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The event of the day was the caucus of the members of the house. Nothing was done because Speaker Crisp, Chairman Wilson and the house conferees had supporters enough on hand to outvote the Springer-Bynum faction. This action of the caucus was disappointing to its promoters, who had hoped for a different result, whereby a speedy settlement of the matters in dispute between the two houses might be reached.

Another disappointment awaited those present in that Mr. Wilson, the chairman of the ways and means committee, failed to inform the caucus what progress the conferees had made, what propositions had been advanced and rejected by the representatives of the two houses, and when, in his opinion, a report could be made. Nor did Speaker Crisp, who spoke at length, throw any light on the situation.

For the most that he said was that an agreement might be reached at an early day, only to be dampened the spirits of those who are pressing for an early adjournment by saying that congress would remain in session ninety days, but that a tariff bill satisfactory to the country would be passed.

A feature of the proceedings was the statement made by Mr. Bonner, of Louisiana, on the authority of Senator Mills, of Texas, that the house must recede from its objections to the senate amendments and agree to them if the passage of a tariff bill is to be expected.

Mr. Holman, the chairman of the caucus committee, presided, and the roll call disclosed the presence of 168 members, an unusually large number. Mr. Bynum, of Indiana, who was the moving spirit in securing a caucus, then offered the following resolution:

Whereas, House bill 4864 for the reduction of taxation and to provide revenue for the government, passed the house on the first day of February and the senate on the third day of July, and was sent to conference on the seventh day of July last; and

Whereas, The commercial interests of the country has been held in suspense awaiting a final settlement of the question; and

Whereas, The people of the whole country have, through public press and by petitions and memorials to both houses of congress, demanded a speedy decision that the industries, as soon as possible, be adjusted to the proposed changes; and,

Whereas, Conferees appointed by the two houses to agree upon the differences over the disagreeing votes of the two houses have had the matter in dispute under consideration for one month and have failed to come to any agreement whatever, now

Whereas, The house of representatives, which under the constitution of the United States, is clothed with the exclusive power to originate bills raising revenue, and is therefore clothed with the right to pass upon all amendments originated by the senate, freely and without restraint; and

Whereas, The members of the house of representatives have not availed themselves of an opportunity to consider said senate amendments or any of them, which right, under parliamentary law, is superior to all others; and

Whereas, It is currently believed that said conferees are unable to agree; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is the sense of this caucus that the democratic conferees of the house and the senate should meet in a spirit of liberality, to the end that the two houses, by mutual concessions, may agree upon a measure which will meet the approval of each;

Second, That this caucus stands adjourned until 8 o'clock Friday, the 10th inst., at which time, in case no agreement has been reached, he shall reconvene to take such further action in the premises as it may deem necessary and appropriate; and the chairman of the house caucus is hereby authorized and directed to invite the democratic senators to meet with the democrats of the house at that time in joint caucus.

Mr. Bynum spoke at length, favoring the resolutions, and was followed by Mr. Wilson, chairman of the ways and means committee, very much in the same line.

Mr. Livingston, of Georgia, offered the following resolution as a substitute for Mr. Bynum's resolution:

Resolved, That we have ultimate confidence in the house conferees, and request that they present a tariff bill that will meet the pledges and principles of the campaign platform of 1892.

Mr. Bynum said the adoption of this resolution would place the members of the caucus in a false light.

Remarks were made by several gentlemen but before anything definite was accomplished Speaker Crisp was recognized and took the floor.

The effect of the Bynum resolution, if passed, would be to take the house from behind the conferees and impress the senate conferees with the fact that all they had to do would be to wait a week and the house conferees would come to them.

A voice—What's the use of doing anything?

Speaker Crisp—Well, if it's agreeable on all sides I am ready to move that the caucus do now adjourn.

Thereupon Messrs. Bynum and Livingston withdrew their resolutions, and the caucus adjourned sine die.

On leaving the hall one of the caucus Senator Gorman said: "The house conferees refused to do anything. They will not agree, nor will they consent to report a disagreement. They will have just forty-eight hours longer in which to make up their minds to something. If at the end of that time they have not consented to an agreement or a disagreement the senate will cut the gordian knot. We will strike the sugar schedule out of the bill and substitute free sugar.

Wants Congress to Adjourn.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—L. A. Russell, the free trade democrat of Cleveland, has telegraphed Senator Brice and Congressman Johnson that, as nothing can be expected of the present representatives of democracy, congress ought to adjourn at once. "We want," says Mr. Russell, "a chance to kill the democrats who are killing the democracy."

HOUSES SHAKEN.

Tremendous Explosion at Lima, O.—Fire Put Out in Time to Save the Magazine.

LIMA, O., Aug. 8.—The residents of the southwestern portion of the city were startled Tuesday afternoon by an explosion that shook their houses. It was soon located at the factory of the Hercules Torpedo Co., three miles southwest, near the Chicago & Erie road. A freight train passing at the time was nearly blown from the track by the force of the explosion.

Fortunately Mr. Cass Jolly, who has charge of the plant, was not working at the factory. His little son was near, but escaped by being behind a large iron tank. The timbers of the main building were shattered into splinters. The grass and leaves were set on fire, and had almost reached the magazine when put out.

The magazine contains two tons of the deadly stuff, and had the flames reached it the whole works would have been wrecked and wiped out of existence. The cause of the explosion is a mystery.

BRIDGES BURNED.

One Destroyed and Another Damaged, and Report of a Second Destroyed.

BRAZIL, Ind., Aug. 8.—A train crew Tuesday morning discovered bridge No. 3, three miles north of this city, on the C. & E. I., on fire. The alarm was given, but before the damage was done before the flames could be extinguished. Another bridge west of this city on the Pea Vine, also a branch of the C. & E. I. system, was destroyed by fire Monday night. This completely destroyed all traffic on this section of the road. Repairers were immediately put to work and it was noon before the north bridge was repaired sufficiently for a train to pass over it. Late Tuesday evening report is current that another bridge on the C. & E. I. was destroyed by fire Monday night near Otter Creek junction. This is thought to be the work of strikers or their sympathizers. It has created much apprehension and watchmen will probably hereafter be stationed at the principal bridges along the line.

A CONFESSION.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph R. Wilson Implicates

Many Others in Kidnaping Adjutant General Tarsney, of Colorado.

Among the Main Movers in the Affair Were the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriffs and Military Officers—A Murderer Allowed to Help to Tar and Feather Him.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 8.—If report be true, Joe R. Wilson, the deputy sheriff of El Paso county who was captured in Missouri, has made a full confession, implicating a number of other men whom he claims assisted him in the Tarsney outrage committed at Colorado Springs several weeks ago. He is now here in the county jail. His confession was made on the train en route to this city.

Wilson says that it is true that a murderer out of the El Paso county jail was allowed to help put tar and feathers on the adjutant general, and that among the main movers in the movement were the sheriff himself, Deputy Sheriff J. R. Wilson, Deputy Bob Mullins, Capt. Saxton, of Troop A; Sherman Crumley, Walter Crumley, Wm. Bancroft, of Troop A, and others.

Wilson, together with Parker, who has also confessed, will be brought before the grand jury at Colorado Springs. Both men are fearful that the public will see fit to take the law into its own hand and punish them without waiting for the law to adjudge them guilty. No trouble, however, is expected by the police.

The conspiracy is said to have originated at Gillette upon the report of an alleged remark on the part of Tarsney to the effect that he hoped every man in Bowers' army would be shipped home in a coffin. The plans were laid and freely discussed in the sheriff's office. A signal was agreed on which was the sticking of the right hand in the vest pocket, and a meeting was called and held in a near-by saloon.

It is claimed that Sheriff Bowers even furnished the tar, while Mrs. Quackenbose skillfully arranged the feathers, destroying one of the pillows belonging to her best room to secure them. The crowd went from their meeting to the Alma hotel in carriages, which were secured by one of the deputies. Everything was conducted calmly, deliberately, and there was no excitement and no noise to draw suspicion. Wilson says that the party was headed by himself and that he was the one who poked the gun under Tarsney's face when he came down to the office to answer the telephone call.

Three other men went into the hotel office. After the attorney was secured and joined the riding party, quiet was changed to tumult and it looked as if the adjutant general had not much longer to live. He was even told that his time had come and he was going to die. They proposed killing him by first chopping his head off and then quartering him with a large keen knife, the edge of which he was asked to feel. All this was finally firmly believed by the adjutant general, who was resigned to his supposed fate.

When he was finally told that he was not going to be killed he was so relieved that he shook hands with his persecutors, and thanked them over and over again for sparing his life.

Wilson has been identified by Mr. Tarsney. He tells a straight and accurate story, and it is believed. In addition to the part attributed to Bowers in the above, he says that it was the sheriff who liberated the murderer for the purpose of having him accompany the tarring party.

After the crowd had amused themselves with the general as long as they wanted, having performed the job of tarring and feathering to their entire satisfaction, they went their way, leaving the victim to wander in a half-dazed condition through the country.

The disclosures of Wilson have created a sensation here.

Foreigners Blamed for the Plague.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Some idea of the feeling entertained by the Chinese toward foreigners who have caused anxiety for the safety of American missionaries is given in the report of the Canton plague received Tuesday at the Marine hospital bureau. Consul Chas. Seymour, writing under date of June 23, says: "Natives are trying to blame foreigners for the plague, and have gotten up riots in Canton and the surrounding country." The consul reports that the plague does not seem to yield to medical treatment, that the mortality is 50 per cent. of the cases, and the deaths since March 1, number at least 40,000.

FT. DEFIANCE.

The Celebration of Its Establishment Commenced.

The Grand Salute of One Hundred Guns Given.

Thirty Thousand Strangers in the City to Participate—The Grand Parade, Stretching Out for Five Miles, the Greatest Event Ever Witnessed There.

DEFIANCE, O., Aug. 8.—Just as the first gray streaks of light shot from the eastern horizon into the heavens Tuesday morning, indicating that dawn was at hand, the people of this city and surrounding country were started into activity by the regular boom, boom of the cannon at Ft. Defiance, firing the grand salute of 100 guns—the initial act in the great three days' celebration in commemoration of the founding of Ft. Defiance by Anthony Wayne, August 8, 1794. Tuesday the great event in the history of northwestern Ohio was inaugurated in all its glory, and the people of Defiance are seemingly working with the accumulated energy of the century past to make this event the grandest in the history of centennials.

At an early hour the people from the surrounding country began pouring into the city. Every train was loaded to the platforms, and before the afternoon was advanced the crowd which thronged the city was estimated at 30,000.

The grand review parade at 10 o'clock was the greatest demonstration of its kind ever witnessed in this section of the country, consisting of thirteen companies of state militia, the 14th and 100th regiments, O. V. I., and other soldier organizations; the fire department, civic societies and a magnificent industrial and trades display, making a parade fully five miles long.

At high noon a marriage ceremony was performed on the historic fort grounds, in the presence of thousands of people. Gov. McKinley and party, in charge of Gen. Howe, arrived in the city at 3:30, and were escorted to the residence Judge Silas Stuphen.

At 4:30 the corner stone of the new Baptist church was laid with imposing ceremonies, conducted by Dr. Ph Henson, of Chicago. Gov. McKinley also addressing the throng of people congregated to witness the laying of the stone.

The city is entirely draped in flags and bunting, and presents a decided Midway Plaisance appearance. Wednesday will see a much larger crowd, and the already long list of noted guests will be added to by the arrival of many who are now on the way to attend the celebration.

Many who have noticed the beautifully lighted stores of Messrs. W. C. Miner, J. H. and J. C. Perce have wondered what new style electric lamp they were using. The fact is, however, that the light is made from plain every day gas with the Welsbach incandescent burner and it can be fitted to any gas fixture in five minutes. The Welsbach consumes about half as much gas as the ordinary tip burner and gives nearly four times as much light and no flickering—absolutely a steady soft, white light that is grateful to the most sensitive eye. For prices and full particulars call on Ballenger the Jeweler.

The Monk!

By MATTHEW G. LEWIS, (MONK LEWIS.)

Mr. Lewis was a member of the British Parliament, and his book became so popular in England a hundred years ago that it gained for him the title of "Monk Lewis."

It is a fine piece of classic composition, and after being out of print for many years it has been republished from the original text.

It is far superior to "Maria Monk" and books of that character.

ROYAL BLUE FLYER.

Nine and one-half hours from Cincinnati to St. Louis.

Three daily trains. Only line running solid trains between Cincinnati and St. Louis with Pullman Vestibuled Sleeping Cars. All classes of passengers carried on first-class express trains.

To Western Emigrants—If you are going West, Northwest or Southwest, write to T. A. Garrigan, Traveling Passenger Agent B. and O. S.-W. Railway, (Ohio and Mississippi Railway,) who will quote you lowest emigrant rates on passengers, household goods, stock and emigrant movables to any point in the West, Northwest or Southwest. Do not make any arrangements for your tickets until you have written or seen him, for it will be to your interest, as rates via the B. and O. S.-W. Railway are as low as via any other route.

The B. and O. S.-W. is the shortest, quickest and most direct route between the East and the West, with no night changes of cars or omnibus transfers. Trains arrive at and depart from Union Depots, and arrive in St. Louis in advance of other lines, giving passengers going West of St. Louis first choice of seats for Western points.

The B. and O. S.-W., (Ohio and Mississippi Railway,) is known as every where as the Emigrant's Friend. It does not promise anything it does not carry out. Write to the undersigned for rates and you will save money.
